Overview of Watchman Nee and His Writings

Watchman Nee was a prominent Chinese Christian author and church leader in the early 20th century. Renowned for his deep spiritual insight and practical theology, Nee's writings have influenced millions of believers worldwide. His works emphasize the inner spiritual life of Christians and the church as the Body of Christ. Among his many books, the spiritual man stands out as a foundational study on the tripartite nature of man according to Scripture.

Watchman Nee's writings are characterized by a focus on the believer's union with Christ, sanctification, and spiritual warfare. His ability to present complex theological concepts in clear, accessible language has contributed to the enduring popularity of his books. The spiritual man remains a key text for those seeking to understand the dynamics of spiritual growth and maturity.

Understanding the Concept of the Spiritual Man

At the heart of Watchman Nee's teaching in the spiritual man is the biblical understanding that man is composed of three distinct parts: spirit, soul, and body. This tripartite view is foundational to grasping the spiritual life and the nature of Christian growth.

Spirit, Soul, and Body Explained

The spirit is the innermost part of man, designed for communion with God. It is through the spirit that believers experience spiritual life and fellowship with the Holy Spirit. The soul encompasses the mind, will, and emotions—essentially the seat of personality and consciousness. The body is the physical aspect, the tangible part that interacts with the material world.

Watchman Nee emphasizes that spiritual maturity involves nurturing the spirit while bringing the soul and body into alignment with God's will. The spiritual man is one whose spirit is dominant, enabling the believer to live a victorious and fruitful Christian life.

The Role of the Spirit in the Believer's Life

The spirit is the channel through which divine life flows into the believer. Nee teaches that the spirit must be exercised and strengthened through prayer, worship, and the study of Scripture. Neglecting the spirit leads to spiritual weakness and vulnerability to sin and deception. The spiritual man is defined by his constant connection with God's Spirit.

Key Themes in The Spiritual Man

Watchman Nee's book covers several vital themes that explain how the spiritual man functions and grows. These themes offer practical and theological insights crucial for Christian discipleship.

Spiritual Warfare

The spiritual man must be equipped to contend with spiritual forces that oppose God's purposes. Nee outlines the reality of spiritual warfare and the believer's authority through Christ. He explains that understanding one's tripartite nature helps in recognizing attacks that target the body, soul, or spirit.

Sanctification and Growth

Sanctification is a progressive process that involves the purification of the soul and body so that the spirit can dominate. Nee discusses how the spiritual man grows by yielding to the Spirit's control and resisting fleshly desires. The growth process is marked by increased spiritual sensitivity and obedience.

The Unity of the Spirit, Soul, and Body

Although distinct, the spirit, soul, and body are intricately connected. Nee teaches that the spiritual man harmonizes these three parts, allowing the spirit to govern the soul and body. This unity results in a balanced Christian life characterized by peace, joy, and power.

Chapter 1: Defining the Spiritual Man According to Watchman Nee

Watchman Nee didn't define the spiritual man as someone detached from the physical world, but rather as someone whose life is governed by the Spirit of God. He emphasized the integrated nature of a spiritual life, where faith permeates every aspect of existence – thoughts, emotions, actions, and relationships. Unlike a purely intellectual or emotional faith, the spiritual man possesses a life infused with the very essence of God, a reality manifested through a surrendered will and a life of obedience. Nee stressed that this is not achieved through human effort alone, but through a yielding to the Holy Spirit's transformative power. This chapter explores the key characteristics Nee identified:

Dependence on the Holy Spirit: This is not a passive reliance but an active cooperation with God's leading. It's about discerning the Spirit's voice and responding with obedience, even in challenging circumstances.

A Life of Prayer: Nee emphasized consistent, heartfelt communication with God, not just in formal prayer times but as a continuous dialogue throughout the day. This entails a constant awareness of God's presence.

Submission to God's Will: This isn't mere compliance; it's a joyful surrender, understanding that God's plan is always for our good, even when it doesn't align with our expectations.

Love for God and Others: This encompasses both agape (unconditional love) and philia (brotherly love), driving actions of compassion, forgiveness, and selfless service.

Spiritual Discernment: The ability to distinguish truth from falsehood, God's leading from human inclination, and to perceive spiritual realities beyond the natural.

This chapter unpacks these elements, providing scriptural support and illustrating them with examples from Nee's life and writings.

Chapter 2: The Life of Christ: The Model for Spiritual Growth

Nee repeatedly highlighted Christ as the ultimate example of a spiritual man. This chapter examines Christ's life, identifying key aspects of his character and actions that serve as a blueprint for spiritual development. It emphasizes the importance of:

Christ's Incarnation: God becoming man, demonstrating that spirituality isn't an escape from reality but a transformative engagement with it.

Christ's Obedience to the Father: His unwavering commitment to God's will, even unto death, sets the standard for true spiritual maturity.

Christ's Ministry of Love and Service: His actions of compassion, forgiveness, and selfless sacrifice reveal the heart of a truly spiritual being.

Christ's Victory over Sin and Death: This victory is not just a historical event but a present reality for those who are united with Him through faith, empowering us to overcome our own struggles.

Christ's Intercession: His constant advocacy for believers before the Father demonstrates the importance of reliance upon His grace and power.

This chapter delves into the practical implications of emulating Christ's life, offering guidance on how to develop similar characteristics in our own lives.

watchman nee the spiritual man pdf: The Ministry of God's Word Watchman Nee, 1994-09-01 The most important work of God on earth is the speaking out of His word through man. Even though God is pleased to allow us to speak His word, the greatest measure of our usefulness as a minister of the Word is not the amount of our Bible knowledge or even the ability to eloquently present the truth; rather, it is the degree to which our inward parts have been molded and shaped by the Holy Spirit. The Ministry of God's Word contains a series of messages given by Watchman Nee in 1948 and 1949 after nearly thirty years of ministry. These messages are deep, profound, subjective, and full of light, revealing both the depth of his experience and extent of our need to open to the Holy Spirit's inward operation.

watchman nee the spiritual man pdf: Spiritual Discernment Watchman Nee, 2010-03-24 Listen to the prayer of the apostle Paul for his beloved church in Philippi: "this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; so that ye may approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto the day of Christ" (Phil. 1.9-10). What was it that inspired him to offer such a prayer for the dear saints in Philippi? Do we today desperately need the same prayer? We talk about love and fellowship, and yet we encounter many problems and failures. What is the missing link to a glorious church? Can it be the lack of "full knowledge and all perception that ye may prove [or, distinguish] the things that differ" (literal translation)? Certainly spiritual discernment is the pressing need of today. How can we obtain this full knowledge of God? Where do we get spiritual discernment that we may know the things which differ or are more excellent? These are the matters which brother Watchman Nee tried to address during his latter years of ministry. This present volume, entitled Spiritual Discernment is composed of three parts: Abound in Knowledge, Abound in Discernment, and Approve the Excellent. The Publishers were able to acquire these Notes in Chinese recently, and they have now been translated into English for sharing with the English-speaking saints. May these Notes help many in meeting the pressing need of today.

watchman nee the spiritual man pdf: The Flesh and the Spirit Witness Lee, 1994-02-01 Two things are the key to the real experience of [the divine] life: our flesh and our spirit. watchman nee the spiritual man pdf: The Latent Power of the Soul Watchman Nee, 1972-06 For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discover the thoughts and intents of the heart (Heb. 4:12). The peril of the believer is to confuse the spirit for the soul and the soul for the spirit, and so be deceived into accepting the counterfeit of evil spirits to the unsettling of God's work. The greatest advantage in knowing the difference between spirit and soul is perceiving the latent power of the soul and in understanding its falsification of the power of the Holy Spirit. Such knowledge is not theoretical but practical in helping people to walk in God's way. In this book, Watchman Nee shares his insight on The Latent Power of The Soul, The Christian and Psychic Force, and Spirit Force vs Psychic Force. Nowadays the atmosphere is so charged with the commotion of all kinds of counterfeit that the Lord seems to be calling the Church to come to a higher ground. Today's situation is perilous. watchman nee the spiritual man pdf: A Balanced Christian Life Watchman Nee, 1981-12-01 Ephraim is a cake not turned (Hosea 7.8). This is a figurative way of saying 'not balanced'. The cake is burned on the one side, uncooked on the other; on one side it is overdone, on the other, totally undone. The cake is unfit to be eaten and is thus destined to be cast out. Our God is most balanced. He is love and He is light. Our Lord Jesus is full of grace and full of truth. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of wisdom as well as of revelation. In creation, God hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with a span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and the hills in a balance (Is. 40:12). Concerning redemption, it is said that mercy and truth are met together, righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Truth springeth out of the earth; and righteousness hath looked down from heaven (Ps. 85:10,11). The new creation, therefore, must be well balanced. In this present volume, Watchman Nee attempts to show from God's word the perfect equilibrium of divine truth. Human nature, however, is prone to emphasize one side to the exclusion of the other side of truth. This has caused much confusion and many problems among God's people. It is essential that we know the balance of truth and hold on to both sides so that our Christian life may be well rounded as God has ordained. The contents of the book opens with a treatment of the balance between the gate and the way; continues with a presentation of the balance between the objective and the subjective; includes a discussion on the work inward and the work outward in the Christian life, as well as on the rest given and the rest found as promised by Christ; contemplates the other side of prayer frequently neglected, namely, to watch; and concentrates on the other less emphasized aspect of the trespass-offering, that of restoration. The book then provides a commentary on the contrast between the truly meek and the spiritually poor, and finally concludes with a consideration of the equilibrium that is so necessary between the believer's faith and the believer's walk. May all who read this volume be brought into a balanced Christian life.

watchman nee the spiritual man pdf: How to Study the Bible Watchman Nee, 1999 The Bible is the inspired word of God, and every believer should study it in order to know the rich and vast content of God's divine provisions. When God speaks, He does so through His established eord. Therefore, we must study the Bible in a proper way in order to let the word of God dwell richly in our hearts. In order to study the Bible, we first must be proper persons, having passed through the necessary spiritual training under the Lord's leading and guiding. We must also use the right methods. Many good books have been printed on how to study the Bible, but most pay attention only to methods of studying the Bible; They do not pay enough attention to the person who studies the Bible. Even with the right methods, we can receive very little in our study of the Bible if Our person is not proper before the Lord.

watchman nee the spiritual man pdf: God's Need and God's Goal Witness Lee, 2024-01-17 It is easy to understand that man has needs, but do we have a sense of God's need? Indeed, we may even wonder, "Who has a greater need, man or God?" In this book, Witness Lee presents his burden that we would "turn our eyes from the earth to heaven to see a need that is immensely greater than man's need—God's need. Without seeing God's need, it is difficult for people who do not have a sense of need to be saved. Furthermore, without seeing God's need, it is difficult for those who are saved to have a heavenly living or to obtain power and faith. May these words lead us to see the need on God's side so that our attention can be shifted from man to God."

watchman nee the spiritual man pdf: Journeying Towards the Spiritual Watchman Nee, 2006-01-01 God's desire is to commune with man. God being spirit, the man who worships Him must worship in spirit and truth. It is therefore essential for man to be spiritual. This is what the gospel of Jesus Christ is all about. Salvation is the way to spirituality. The original three volume set of The Spiritual Man by Watchman Nee serves as a guide, not as a manual, to walk in spiritual life as well as to fight the spiritual warfare. It was written under tremendous spiritual conflict. Only through the grace of God and the victory of Christ was Watchman Nee able to finish the writing. Now having become a Christian classic, it may be considered as Watchman Nee's legacy to the Church. Condensed in this new volume, there are 42 lessons to be learned in journeying towards the spiritual. May we be guided by the Spirit of God to heartily learn these necessary lessons all to the glory of God.
