A cannon. A strap. A piece. A biscuit. A burner. A heater. A chopper. A gat. A hammer A tool for RULE Or, you can call it a gun. That's what fifteen-year-old Will has shoved in the back waistband of his jeans. See, his brother Shawn was just murdered. And Will knows the rules. No crying. No snitching. Revenge. That's where Will's now heading, with that gun shoved in the back waistband of his jeans, the gun that was his brother's gun. He gets on the elevator, seventh floor, stoked. He knows who he's after. Or does he? As the elevator stops on the sixth floor, on comes Buck. Buck, Will finds out, is who gave Shawn the gun before Will took the gun. Buck tells Will to check that the gun is even loaded. And that's when Will sees that one bullet is missing. And the only one who could have fired Shawn's gun was Shawn. Huh. Will didn't know that Shawn had ever actually USED his gun. Bigger huh. BUCK IS DEAD. But Buck's in the elevator? Just as Will's trying to think this through, the door to the next floor opens. A teenage girl gets on, waves away the smoke from Dead Buck's cigarette. Will doesn't know her, but she knew him. Knew. When they were eight. And stray bullets had cut through the playground, and Will had tried to cover her, but she was hit anyway, and so what she wants to know, on that fifth floor elevator stop, is, what if Will, Will with the gun shoved in the back waistband of his jeans, MISSES. And so it goes, the whole long way down, as the elevator stops on each floor, and at each stop someone connected to his brother gets on to give Will a piece to a bigger story than the one he thinks he knows. A story that might never know an END...if Will gets off that elevator. Told in short, fierce staccato narrative verse, Long Way Down is a fast and furious, dazzlingly brilliant look at teenage gun violence, as could only be told by Jason Reynolds.

car wash ticket template: 100 Days Smart Karin Tramm, 2023-02-21 Karin Tramm's kindergarten class at DoDEA Vicenza Elementary School on Caserma Ederle Army Base, Italy, was counting up to a magic day—the 100th day of school—when students would be 100 days smart! “Mrs. Tramm, is that the last day of school?” a child asked. Goodness no, there are a lot of numbers bigger than one hundred,” Mrs. Tramm explained, “and we will be in school for many more days after the hundredth day.” But then, on February 21, 2020, the 100th day of school, COVID-19 changed everything. From empty classrooms to kindergarten in the kitchen, teachers, parents, and students navigated uncharted waters as their world locked down in the epicenter of the Italian outbreak. For the next 100 days, residents of Vicenza learned to find joy in simplicity, country living, and community. In diary form, 100 Days Smart highlights their resilience, recognizing and remembering the fears and frustrations, humor and humanity of shared experiences on a new path forward.

car wash ticket template: How to Effectively Resolve Consumer Complaints and Motoring Disputes Scott Dixon, 2016-09-24 Are you fed up being fobbed off by incompetent staff who laughably call themselves 'Sales Representatives' or 'Customer Service Advisors' when you have a legitimate complaint? Do you simply think it's the way of the world and there is nothing you can do about it? Think again! Using my skills, knowledge and expertise, I can show you how to effectively complain to get fast results and good compensation with the minimum of effort and fuss on your part. What you pay for this knowledge, which will only cost you the price of a pub lunch, will reap rewards time and time again and will, without doubt, be the best investment you have ever made. The inspiration for writing this book came from single handedly fighting (and winning) a wide range of consumer related cases mainly revolving around poor customer service and, in one instance, blatant fraud. Throughout the book I refer to real life cases and give you all the tools you need to win disputes. I have included templates and guidance on legislation to seal your case from the outset, and secure a quick resolution in your favour. Later chapters of the book cover various motoring offences including how to submit pothole claims, contest parking tickets and dispute alleged speeding offences and I show you how I successfully contested an alleged motoring offence by interpreting the Road Traffic Act and quoting the law back to the Police trying to enforce the law. A professional with legal qualifications and a career of nearly twenty years in offshore finance (spanning banking, regulation and tax planning), I am well versed in scrutinising legislation and conducting in-depth due diligence on individuals and companies of all sizes. I would like to give credit to Erin Siddoway for kindly providing me with the design cover for this book, and Alison Nicholson at www.getitwrite.im for proof-reading and editing my work. I appreciate the efforts and contributions they have made in helping me bring this book to fruition.
